Dear Ms. Kimberly:

This is in response to your February 11, 2002, letter to Lorraine Lewis, Inspector General, requesting the Department of Education's "2003 Security Costs Estimates Display." You also requested negative reports.

As you know, the Department of Education does not have original classification authority. Historically, we have not had 51% or more of a resource devoted to a classification related activity. Moreover, on a part-time basis our resources devoted to these activities over a year have not added up to 51%. Although events over the past few months have increased our activity, at the present time, we cannot predict whether we will have to devote more than 51% of a resource to such activity in the future, either on a part-time or full-time basis.

Should you have any questions concerning our classification related activities, please contact Ms. Sandra Warren, Security Officer, at 202-205-9780.

Sincerely,

Willie H. Gilmore

Dear Ms. Kimberly:

This is in response to your February 2, 2004, letter requesting the Department of Education's "Report on Cost Estimates for Security Classification Activities."

As you know, the Department of Education (hereafter Department) does not have original classification authority. Historically, the Department has not had 51% or more of a resource devoted to classification-related activities. Moreover, on a part-time basis the Department's resources devoted to these activities over a year do not add up to 51%.

However, during the current Fiscal Year, the Department has incurred one-time Physical Security costs as a result of classification-related activities. The Department secured space for emergency operations, and installed secure communications devices.

If you have any questions concerning the Department's security classification-related activities, please do not hesitate to contact Ms. Sandra Warren, Supervisory Security Officer, at 202-205-9780.

Sincerely,

The only significant increase was on the Protection and Maintenance of Classified Systems. We increased the number of systems that we had this Fiscal Year. The installation fees were paid this fiscal year which caused the increase.
